BALTIMORE—TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17th, 1815

NO. 56.

Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

We are happy to announce the arrival from England, of COMMODORE BARNEY, in the ship Joseph, 67 days from London. He suffers still from the effects of the wound received at Bladensburg, and will be obliged to undergo an operation to get rid of the ball in his thigh.

NEW-YORK, October 12.

In the Journal de Paris of Sunday, 13th Aug. we find the following paragraph.—

"BONAPARTE had organised in the Isle of Elba, a small free navy, upon the plan of those of Tunis and Algiers. And we are assured that the Elbians have declared war against England! that their vessels have already chased several of the British; and that they have sworn never to lay down their arms till they have regained their Sovereign. They are making immense preparations at Porto Ferrajo for a descent upon the Island of St. Helena."

NEW-YORK, October 11.

Great fears are entertained for the loss of the U. S. brig Epervier, Captain Shubrick. He was despatched to the United States by Commodore Decatur a considerable time since, and as he has not arrived within the usual period of the longest voyages from the Mediterranean, it is conjectured that the brig has foundered at sea.

It is rumoured that the Franklin and Washington, U. S. ships of the line, are to be equipped for service forthwith, and that they will have orders to cruise along our coast for the protection of our commerce, &c.
